FROM THE PUBLISHER

This month we head to the National Indian Gaming Association's (NIGA) Indian Gaming Tradeshow and Convention held April 1-4 at the San Diego Convention Center. Over 340 companies are exhibiting this year and the show will be host to 70 hours of education across 15 learning tracks. Each topic has been carefully chosen to offer the best perspectives, strategies, and tactics from experts and thought leaders within the industry by the Conference Chair, Victor Rocha and the Associate Members Education Track Advisory Committees.

In this, our expanded NIGA show issue, we have a very informative Tribal Leader Roundtable; NIGA pre-show coverage featuring 22 of the leading product and service vendors to help attendees learn more about them as they navigate the exhibit hall; and an expanded New Games Roll-Out at NIGA featuring many of the new games available at the show. We would like to thank all of the exceptional writers in both our March NIGA pre-show issue and April NIGA show issue for their efforts, and our advertisers for their support.

We look forward to the Northwest Indian Gaming Conference & Expo held June 17-19 at the Tulalip Resort Casino in Tulalip, WA. I highly recommend this excellent show, which continues to grow year over year. After that, we head to Oklahoma for OIGA – The Biggest Little Show in Indian Gaming held July 22-24 at the Cox Business Center in Tulsa. Another show that just keeps getting bigger!

We look forward to meeting as many of our readers as possible at the shows. If you are able to attend NIGA's Indian Gaming Tradeshow and Convention, please stop by our booth #1807 and say hello!
