

Raymond Nordwall

Cover Artwork: Wolf Medicine

Raymond Nordwall (Pawnee/Ojibwe) studied art at Oklahoma State University, Bacone College and the Institute of American Indian Arts.

Although Nordwall enjoys painting many different subjects – landscapes, wildlife and even plein air painting – his first love and the subject he always returns to is inspired by his native culture.

Raymond's mother, Eva Fields Nordwall (Pawnee), was tragically killed in a car accident when he was ten. "My mom loved Indian art and attending powwows. I feel close to her when I'm painting this subject. It's my way of keeping her memory alive."

Raymond and his wife, Gina, own Nordwall Gallery & Studio on the historic Canyon Rd. in Santa Fe. ♣

Raymond Nordwall can be reached by calling Nordwall Gallery & Studio at (505) 988-5057. To view more of his artwork, visit www.nordwallart.com.

The advertisement features a collage of images showcasing various construction projects. On the left, there's a large indoor waterfall with purple and blue lighting. In the center, a scenic view of a resort building with a stream and rocky landscape. On the right, a modern interior space with a 'Fan Club' sign and curved architectural elements. The text is arranged around these images, highlighting the company's services and contact information.
